

Chair's report for January 2018

Due to the Christmas holidays there has been little activity in December.

Further reports from the Chair relate to the traffic group and are reported as such.

This concludes the Chair's report.